Outcomes Measurement

Personal responsibility or health outcomes and consumer-provider partnership in treatment decisions are primary tools of successful treatment. Clinical progress in each level of care will be assessed on an ongoing basis per Diagnosis Specific Symptom Rating Scales, Fidelity, and TRR requirements. Assessment of outcomes is necessary on at least two levels:

1. Individual outcomes measure the effectiveness of treatment by assessing the response to treatment in relation to defined outcomes. The clinical team will use the Uniform Assessment Packet and encounter data to assess individual outcomes.
2. System outcomes measure the effectiveness of the service delivery system by utilizing aggregated individual outcomes cost data and encounter data. Use of this data is essential to evaluate effectiveness and efficiency. Use of this data will inform TDSHS and local authorities of system quality and efficiency, and will provide a basis for a root cause analysis of success as well as deficiencies.
3. Specific fidelity scales, developed by DSHS, measure the extent and faithfulness of implementation of Mental Health Resiliency and Recovery (TRR) for purposes of quality improvement and accountability to DSHS and by extension to the Texas Legislature and the citizens of Texas. Providers should familiarize themselves with the DSHS fidelity guidelines for TRR services at <http://www.dshs.state.tx.us/mhprograms/RDMFidelityToolkit.shtm>.

All on-line courses are accessible via the internet; however, you must be approved to take the courses through the website. Training that is duplicated at your agency can be substituted for required MHMRA courses as long as it meets the course objective. Course substitutions must be approved by the MHMRA Quality Management Department. For questions and/or answers, you may contact Network Management @ mhnetworkdevelopment@mhmrharris.org. Certain trainings require a demonstration of competency before the service can be provided. A recommendation is that each unlicensed rehabilitative provider receives weekly clinical supervision by a licensed professional. Additional trainings are taken by MHMRA staff and are available to improve quality of care if provider makes requests to MHMRA.

Certain trainings allow for the ability to show a demonstration of competency via exam instead of attending the training all before the service can be provided. These courses/exams are required for staff listed under Who Needs column (waived staff do not need to take exam nor course). Passing the competency exam in Elogic will serve as a demonstration of competency if score not less than 70% on first and only attempt. If not able to pass competency exam, provider must attend/take training.
